NOTE:

1. LOADED FIREARMS are prohibited from being kept in the house or on the premises of a family boarding care facility certified by the Office of Children and Family Services. (Peace officers shall be considered the exception, if required by law).
2. ALL FIREARMS AND AMMUNITION in houses or on the premises must be secured and inaccessible to youth at all times. Firearms must be stored in an inoperable condition, i.e., equipped with a trigger lock, and must be stored in a locked, secure condition, i.e., a safe, cabinet, locker, closet, or an open gun rack equipped with locking apparatus, that is located in an area of the family boarding care facility that is generally supervised, or in an area NOT GENERALLY ACCESSIBLE TO YOUTH IN CARE.
3. AMMUNITION must be stored in a locked, secure place that is located in an area separate from the area in which the firearm is located.
